Dear Ranch Camp Families,

Shalom, and welcome to the JCC Ranch Camp! We know there are many opportunities for kids during the summer, and we are delighted that you have chosen JCC Denver Ranch Camp. We are committed to upholding and enhancing the high standards for programmatic excellence and camper care for which Ranch Camp is known. In order to succeed, our parents must be our partners. Together, we can provide the best possible experience for every child who comes through our gates. This manual should be a valuable resource as you prepare for the summer.

A session at Ranch Camp should be fun and full of new experiences, challenges, and growth. Ranch Camp should, above all, be a place where the physical, emotional, and spiritual health, safety, and well being of every member of our community are of paramount importance. As camp parents, becoming familiar with the contents of this manual is among the most helpful thing you can do to help us build this kind of environment and prepare yourselves and your child for the experience that awaits you.

We often hear members of our camp community say, "At Ranch Camp, I am my very best me." This can only happen when families partner with us to give our campers the tools to succeed. For our part, we have succeeded when every camper returns home brimming with stories of new friends made, challenges met, and valuable new experiences beyond anything they knew to expect. They may very well (OK, likely) be a bit dirtier than the day they arrived, but they should also appear just a bit older, a bit wiser, and more aware of their own potential to be their best.

Thank you for being our partners in creating a community where we are our very best selves.

B'Shalom,

Noah Gallagher

- Innovative learning opportunities for children and staff members in a “Western Judaic” environment that challenges growth in mind, body, and spirit

RANCH CAMP

MISSION

Ranch Camp Middot

At Ranch Camp we practice “seamless Judaism” by weaving Jewish values into the activities and experiences of camp. We focus on four central middot to guide our actions and discussions at camp.

Chesed: Kindness

We treat one another with kindness and compassion. We support, encourage, and model this behavior throughout the Ranch Camp community.

Kavod: Honor/Respect

We honor and value ourselves and others by being tolerant and accepting. We are considerate of the feelings of others. We treat others as we would like to be treated. We are supportive and compassionate.

Acharayut: Responsibility

We are accountable for our actions, words, and attitude. We are responsible for ourselves, for one another, and for the well-being of the Ranch Camp community.

Shomrei Ha'Adamah: Guardians of the Earth

We are aware that the welfare of our planet depends on us. We have a responsibility to protect our planet and repair the world (tikkun olam).

Ranch Camp Inclusion Statement

In alignment with our mission, vision, and values, JCC Ranch Camp is committed to the fundamental principles of personal freedom, equality of opportunity, and human dignity. We strive to create a community that welcomes diversity. We invite and engage all those who wish to participate including but not limited to people of any: race, ethnicity, religion, age, gender identity and expression, socioeconomic status, sexual orientation, family structure, ability, marital status, culture, and spirituality. We will continually challenge ourselves and others in an environment of mutual concern and respect for the free expression of all individuals. Inclusion permeates our center. Inclusion is belonging.

Parents' Role at Camp

In order to make this camping season as successful as we would all like it to be, we are asking parents to join us in a partnership. We need you, our partners, to take responsibility to do the following:

- Include your child in the process of preparing for camp
- Fill out the forms completely and return them on time (this a critical component in state licensure, and in an emergency situation)
- Communicate with us about potential concerns, your child's fears, and successful ways of helping your child work through his or her fears
- Use positive language to help your child get excited about camp.
- Send your child mail. (Sending the first letter several days before camp begins ensures that camper(s) will receive mail in the first few days)
- Support our policies as laid out in this manual
- Give us feedback about how we can meet you/your child's needs

Visitation

There are no visiting days during camp sessions. This policy is in place because parent visitations can not only prove incredibly disruptive to the “camper experience” but also tend to create or intensify homesickness. If you wish to visit Ranch Camp, we welcome you to do so during a time that your child is not attending camp. To schedule a tour of camp, or learn more about our Open House events, contact us at 303.316.6384.

Ranch Camp Transportation* Procedures

Payment, Cancellations, Scholarships, and Donations

Payment Schedule

Registrations are processed with either payment in full or a payment plan. All payments must be collected prior to a child attending camp unless you have received custom payment plan approval. In order to be fair to campers on the wait list, space will no longer be reserved for registered campers after deadlines if fees are not paid in full. Separate deadlines pertain to scholarship applicants.

Changes/Cancellations

Camp expenses are fixed in advance, based upon a definite number of campers for specified times. No rebates or discounts from fees can be made for entering late or leaving early. Changes or cancellations must be made in writing. Payment on your account, minus a $200 administrative fee, will be refunded or credited to your account before May 1, 2018; after this date, payment can only be transferred to other JCC Denver camping programs or held towards 2018 Ranch Camp tuition (must register by 12/31/2018).

Scholarships

This year we will be working with FAST financial aid services to review and award financial need based scholarships. Families applying for financial aid will need to complete an application and submit the necessary supporting documentation to FAST, by April 1, 2018. Applications will be reviewed by our scholarship committee April 16 -27. Families will be notified about Scholarship Awards on Monday April 30th and must formally accept awards by May 7. Appeals will be accepted and reviewed May 7 -11. If you cannot meet these deadlines, or have any issues with submitting your 2017 tax returns, you must contact Shana Jacobs directly to make additional arrangements at sjacobs@jccdenver.org or 303.316.6445.

Donations

For those families who wish to make a tax-deductible donation to the JCC Ranch Camp for camper scholarships or for capital improvements, go to ranchcamp.org/donate. Contributions such as furniture, equipment, office supplies, and sporting goods are also needed and welcome. Please call our office if you'd like to make a physical donation.

Camp Forms

The forms for camp, found in your camp account online, must be completed and submitted before the start of camp. No camper may come to camp without completed, signed forms. You must have forms turned in by May 1

The information you provide will help us get better acquainted with your family and child, and information on your physician form and health history form will assist our staff in caring for any special needs your child may have. Feel free to arrange a meeting with the camp director to discuss specific dietary and health-related restrictions.

Activities Release Review

During their stay, campers engage in activities like horse-back riding, a high ropes/challenge course, swimming, field trips, rafting, etc. In accordance with state law, and American Camping Association guidelines, we require consent from parents/guardians authorizing campers to participate in these activities. Parents may write on the authorization form that they choose not to allow their child to participate in any of the designated activities and/or their doctor should indicate activity restrictions.

Acknowledgement of Guidelines and Waivers

Please review the following guidelines which are included in your camper forms.

JCC Ranch Camp Transportation Statement

I understand that during the summer season, campers may take excursions beyond the Denver JCC Camps' properties. If being transported by camp, campers are transported in seat-belted vehicles, or by bus with licensed drivers who meet insurance and Colorado Dept. of Human Services criteria, and are under the supervision of JCC Denver camp staff members, by signing below I am enabling my child to go on such excursions. Safety rules for vehicle and bus travel- Passengers should remain seated at all times with hands and arms inside the vehicle. Seat belts should be fastened when riding in vehicles. Noise levels should be as to not distract the driver. There should be no throwing of objects or other disruptive behavior. Passengers should enter and leave the vehicle under the direction and supervision of a staff member and/or driver. If the vehicle needs to make an emergency stop, passengers should follow directions of a staff member and/or driver and use the buddy system if leaving the vehicle.

Health and Wellness Preparing for Camp

Emergency Contacts

Please fully fill out the Ranch Camp Emergency Contacts section on the Camper Application. In the event of an emergency, all efforts will be made to contact the parents/guardians of the campers. If we are unable to contact the parents/guardians, we will then try to contact the Emergency Contacts which you have provided. Please make sure to include the names, relationships, and phone numbers of people to whom you give permission to pick up your child from camp in the event that you are not available. Someone who is NOT listed on this form will not be able to pick up your child on the last day of camp.

Health Insurance

The Ranch Camp does not provide camper insurance. Each child must have personal health insurance. Camper medical costs incurred during the summer including prescriptions, doctors' visits or hospital bills, will be charged to the parents and their insurance. Insurance information is requested on the Health History form. If you currently have no insurance or don't want to use your insurance for medical issues, you must sign a medical liability release waiver that holds you responsible for all medical charges incurred over the summer. If you need a copy to sign, please call our office.

Immunization Requirements

The Ranch Camp prioritizes the health, safety and well-being of children above all else.

To that end, the JCC has decided, as most schools already have, to more strictly enforce the Colorado Department of Public Health and Environment's immunization standards designed to better protect the health and safety of all members of our ECC community. Ranch Camp will only enroll children who have been administered the MMR and Varicella vaccines OR who can show proof of immunity via a blood test. Medical professionals advise that immunizations protect our children and staff allowing socialization in an environment that is of the highest standards of health and safety. When our children and staff are healthy and safe, a quality program can take place. We realize this may, for some, not be in sync with your personal beliefs. If the cost of obtaining the required immunizations poses a problem for you, you can learn where to obtain immunizations free or a low cost by calling the Family Health Line at 303.692.2229 or 800.688.7777 or the Colorado Helpline at 877.467.2911. We appreciate your cooperation with this important policy decision. Prior to the summer we will audit our immunization records. Please make sure your child's record is up to date by providing the required information on our online health form.

Camper Care Questionnaire

Making the camping experience a success requires a partnership between families and the camp.

Your assistance in providing the camp with detailed information regarding your child is of paramount importance!

This is especially valuable when a child has special needs or there has been a recent disruption in his/her family life, such as moving, separation/divorce, or death.

Please be assured we only have the best interests of your child in mind, but we cannot help if we do not have background information. Discussions with the camp staff will remain confidential.

Health While at Camp

Please fill out the Health History completely and accurately. Our camp clinic staff reads through every health history for daily medicines, dosages, times, etc. We may call you to verify accuracy, and sometimes to work with you to adjust your child's normal routine to a camp setting. Parental Communication from the Health Center Phone and/or email contact with parents/guardians is established on an as-needed basis or in the event that your child needs to go to an Urgent Care or Hospital. Each person's health and emergency contact forms contain primary contact information and designates alternate contacts if the parents/guardians cannot be reached. This process is initiated by the directors and/or the camp clinic staff but can be delegated to an appropriate staff member if they are unavailable. Every effort is made to contact a parent/guardian before a camper is sent to a clinic or hospital, either by camp vehicle or an emergency services vehicle.

We view our parents as partners in creating a fun and safe camping experience. In this effort, our clinic staff is committed to keeping families informed of health concerns related to their child. Parents/guardians will not be contacted for minor health issues, such as scrapes, small abrasions, or non-repetitive headaches, stomachaches, or similar complaints.

Clinic staff will be in touch with parents/guardians in the following circumstances:

- Camper has to spend the night in the Health Center or needs to be taken home to recover (this is required for campers with active bowel distress, fever, or otherwise exhibits signs of contagious condition)
- Camper requires a prescription medication
- Camper needs to be seen by a healthcare professional outside of camp
- Camper is a "frequent visitor" to our Health Center

Because many people remotely access their voice mail, it is expected that camp personnel leave voice messages on answering machines that appropriately communicate the need for a given parent to call the camp and/or send parents/guardians an email. All contact—successful and unsuccessful—is documented on the individual's health form and in the daily health log.

Contagious or Prolonged Illness

If a camper is diagnosed with a contagious condition, such as pink eye or strep throat, they will have to remain isolated from the rest of camp for the first 24-hours that they are on antibiotics. During this time, it is recommended that local campers go home to rest and recover. For campers who are not able to go home, they will be housed in our clinic during this time period.

If a camper has a prolonged illness resulting in them having to spend three consecutive nights in the clinic, we will work with parents/guardians to determine the best course of action. It is recommended that local campers go home to rest and recuperate in an attempt to get better faster and rejoin camp activities with their peers. We will work with out-of-town camper families and discuss options for their child.

Prescription Medications – All prescription medications must be turned in to the health clinic staff by parents on the first day of camp. All medications must be in original packaging (do not “pre-package” yourself OR put medications in mixed bottles or Ziploc bags!) and the dosage MUST match the dosage listed on your Physician’s form. If prescription medication is NOT listed on your Physician’s form we cannot administer it until we receive written consent from your doctor! Please contact our office pre-summer if your child will be taking growth hormone, using insulin injections, or other refrigerated medications so we can bring coolers and/or develop care plans.

Regularly Taken OTC Medications – If your child plans on taking regular or daily doses of OTC medications you MUST list this, with a doctor’s signature, on your Physician’s form. We cannot administer daily medication regimes without doctor approval. Please also bring said OTC medication in its original packaging (do not “pre-package” yourself OR put medications in mixed bottles or Ziploc bags!)

As-Needed OTC Medication – We carry the majority of OTC medications (cold/sinus, allergy, etc). See a complete list in the “Health History” form. If your child takes an OTC medication “as needed” please list this on your Physician’s form. If we carry the medication you do NOT need to bring this – we will provide all “as needed” medications on our list.

All medications are dispensed by the clinic staff with careful recording of their usage in accordance with state law and ACA standards. Asthmatics and campers using Epi-pens must bring two inhalers/epi-pens (new, original packaging) – one will be kept as a back-up in our camp health clinic. If your child wears glasses or contacts, it is extremely important that he/she bring an extra pair to camp.

Please remind your child that all injuries, no matter how minor, must be reported to his/her counselor.

Epi-Pen and Inhaler Self-Carry Information
Campers who are asthmatic and/or who have severe allergies that require them to bring an epi-pen to camp will need to fill out the Asthma Care Plan and/or the Allergy-Anaphylaxis Care Plan form(s). In addition to these forms, campers who will need to have an inhaler and/or epi-pen on them at all times will also need to fill out the Inhaler/Epi-Pen Self-Carry Contract. Due to the dynamic nature of our daily camp schedule, campers who need to have an inhaler and/or epi-pen on them at all times will be required to self-carry these items in hip pack that Ranch Camp will provide. At least one back-up inhaler or epi-pen will also need to be provided to the camp to be kept in the camp clinic. Self-carry inhalers and epi-pens will be stored in a lock box in the campers’ cabins at night time for safekeeping.

Emergencies

In the event of an emergency please call the Ranch Camp Office at 303.648.3800. If you are unable to reach us in the office, please call the Camp Emergency Line at 303.408.3841.

In the case of a tornado warning, all campers are taken into the storm shelter under the camp dining hall. We respond to all tornado warning within Elbert County regardless of their actual proximity to our site.

Although all safety precautions are taken, if an accident or injury occurs, parents are notified in a timely manner. Emergency medical services are called if needed. Staff is trained in CPR and First Aid. Additionally, Ranch Camp has professional medical staff on-site at all times.

Ranch Camp practices fire drills at the beginning of each session and go over emergency procedures for tornado, lightning, and evacuation with our campers and staff at this time.

Ranch Camp takes all precautions to prevent a missing or lost child. A missing or lost child is any camper who is currently unaccounted for. If a camper is missing, the areas where the cabin group and camper have recently been or are going towards, including the campers’ cabin and nearby restrooms are searched. Other children are asked if they know where the child may be and a code word is used over the walkie channel notifying all staff to be on the lookout for a misplaced camper. If the child is still missing, he/she is immediately reported missing to the Camp Directors who will then assess the situation and take the appropriate next steps to find the missing child.

All counselors have a count-off system or way of counting their campers and will conduct head counts throughout the day. Staff is proactive in making sure that all children are where they belong and under appropriate supervision.

Behavioral Agreement and Values

Jewish Values at Camp

Ranch Camp provides a fun experience for children filled with opportunities to grow, make friends, and enjoy new opportunities. Campers will be most successful in accomplishing these goals if each member of the camp community is committed to upholding our shared values, also known as a Brit (covenants of mutual responsibility). Inclusivity is an essential component of the experience and campers, staff, and parents of all faiths and backgrounds will feel a part of the camp community. The following values come from Jewish tradition and are first written in Hebrew and followed by an English translation.

Ranch Camp Behavioral Middot (Values)

Chesed: Kindness

We treat one another with kindness and compassion. We support, encourage, and model this behavior throughout the camp community.

Kavod: Honor/Respect

We honor and value ourselves and others by being tolerant and accepting. We are considerate of the feelings of others. We treat others as we would like to be treated. We are supportive and compassionate.

Acharayut: Responsibility

We are accountable for our actions, words, and attitude. We are responsible for ourselves, for one another and for the well-being of the Camp Shai community.

Shituf Peulah: Cooperation

We listen, communicate, participate, and ask for help when needed. By telling the truth, following directions, and by being willing to try new things, we are creating a fun and safe camp community.

Behavior Expectations

Considerable factors in the success of a camp program are the behaviors, interests and attitudes of members of the camp community. These ingredients set the mood for the entire summer.

Courtesy and respect are always expected and appreciated. Our counselors are expected to be role models in this area. The purpose of our camp is to develop new friendships, knowledge, skills, and most importantly to have fun! This can only be achieved in an environment which is safe, both physically and emotionally, and where the rights and welfare of all are considered.

Campers and staff are expected to act in a respectful manner. The following are unacceptable behaviors and if participated in, could result in dismissal from camp:

- Verbal abuse of anyone for any reason
- Threatening of, or physical abuse and fighting
- Stealing or damaging property; including graffiti in cabins, on tents or in common spaces (excluding the Mo)
- The creation of alliances and written verbal contracts used to exclude anyone at any time for any reason
- Teasing and gossiping
- Sexual, racial or cultural harassment

Ranch Camp Bullying Policy

We encourage you, as parents, to please let us know about any particular bullying concerns you may have for your child or any off-season, camp-related emails, instant messages, etc. that may have led to exclusion or meanness towards your child by somebody else in camp. We want to ensure that this problem can be managed by a strong partnership between Ranch Camp and you.

We ask that you, as parents, understand the commitment of JCC Denver Camps in preventing bullying and encourage you to talk about the potential consequences with your children in advance. While at camp, your child deserves to feel physically and emotionally safe to have new experiences, and meet new friends. No child's experience should be hindered because of bullying.

Please see our Behavior Agreement for a detailed explanation of our behavior guidelines.

Drug and Alcohol Policy

Any camper caught smoking any substance, drinking alcohol, or using illegal drugs on camp property will be dismissed from camp immediately. Campers caught selling, distributing, or using drugs may also be prosecuted by law enforcement.

Dismissal

JCC Ranch Camp reserves the right to send home any child who exhibits any of the listed bullying behaviors. If a bullying situation should occur, the incident will be discussed with the child and the parent/guardian will be called to discuss the situation. Children who engage in bullying may be subject to a behavior contract in consultation with their parent/guardian and/or sent home. Parents are responsible for picking up their child. The person listed as the emergency contact will be contacted if parents cannot be reached.

Behavior Support

Modeling, positive encouragement, and reinforcement are used to encourage desired behaviors. Conflict resolution strategies and redirection into other activities are used as preventive measures when challenging behaviors occur. Any disciplinary actions must be approved by the Camp Directors and will not be associated with food, rest, or physical activity. Children will not be subjected to physical, emotional, or humiliating forms of discipline.

If a counselor observes a situation where the camper is not adhering to our behavior guidelines, the counselor will try to resolve the problem with the camper through discussion, redirection, and reviewed expectations.

If the behavior continues, the following incremental steps may be taken:

1. The counselor will give an official warning which includes a clear understanding of the concern and some alternative behaviors that could be considered for future situations.
2. The counselor and Village Director will meet with the camper to discuss the situation and to review the JCC Brit and behavioral agreement. The Village Director will make a phone call home to the parents.
3. The counselor, Village Director and Camp Director will have a conference, or conference call, with the camper and parents to discuss a plan of action for resolution of the concern.
4. Camper may be dismissed from camp without a refund.

Please see our Behavior Agreement for a detailed explanation of our behavior guidelines.

Communication

Our summer services are now integrated with the same system we use for camper registration. You can view/purchase photos, purchase camper email notes, read camp news, and set up user accounts for family members all through your online parent portal. Simply log into your family account and scroll down to the Online Community section.

Photos – Each evening we commit to post 50–100 photos of the current days camp activities. These photos can be viewed by yourself and approved family members through your Camp InTouch account. They can also be purchased and printed. Please note that there will be occasional interruptions to our Internet service that inhibit our ability to post photos in a timely manner.

Blog – We post regular blog posts written by staff members and campers throughout the session to tell the story of camp and give you a sense of life at camp. You can view this blog on our website at ranchcamp.org or through the News section of your Camp InTouch account.

Facebook – Each day we will be posting information, updates and photos to Facebook. This is also a great way to stay connected to the Ranch Camp community year round. Please join our community by “Liking” the JCC Ranch Camp page.

Telephone – The number of the JCC Ranch Camp's summer office is 303.648.3800. We encourage your calls, and are happy to answer any questions. Campers are not permitted to make or take calls except when it is an emergency.

From the Counselors

You will receive communication from your child's counselors while your child is at camp. Madrichim will send out two messages (email, video, etc) to their campers' parents during each camp session with updates on the bunk. First-time camper families will be contacted during the first 72 hours of camp in order to give families an update on how their camper is adjusting to camp.

Please regularly check both your email and our Facebook pages for camp pictures, updates, etc. Ranch Camp makes every effort to keep parents informed of the daily activities of our camp with emails that are sent out regularly. Please make sure we have your correct email address.

Letters from Your Camper

Please send your camper with self-addressed envelopes, stamps and stationary to enable them to write home, while they are at camp. We encourage campers to write letters home and give them time to do so. If you have concerns about any content in your campers' letters home, please contact us at the Ranch Camp Office so that we can address potential issues.

Communicating with Your Camper Mail

Campers need mail! A regular flow of mail to and from home can help promote your child's positive feelings about camp and about being away from home. Packing self-addressed envelopes, stationery, and stamps will help facilitate the flow mail from campers to home. The Ranch Camp delivers all outgoing mail to the Elbert Post office daily (except Sundays) by 1:00 pm and all incoming mail is delivered to campers daily after lunch (except for Saturdays).

Please send mail to:
Child's Name
c/o JCC Ranch Camp
21441 N Elbert Rd
Elbert, CO 80106

Packages

You may send non-food items such as magazines, games, cards, etc. "Sealed with a Kiss" and "Wrinkled Egg" are two companies that you can use with options for ready-made packages for your child. Please limit the total number of packages you and families send to one per session and instead focus on letters. If your child receives more than 1 package you will be notified and further packages will be held until the end of the session. This does not apply to camper birthdays, reading material sent in flat envelopes or forgotten items.

DO NOT SEND FOOD IN CARE PACKAGES!

Campers have three meals a day as well as snacks consisting of healthy, nutritious, Kosher food and snacks, so your child should be able to find many foods they enjoy. Food in bunks attracts mice, rats, raccoons, and skunks to the cabins and interferes with our kashrut supervision. All campers will open packages under staff supervision. It is tempting to send food, but please don't. Sending food also compromises our ability to protect members of our community with food allergies. Please help us guard the health, safety, and well-being of our community – do not send food!

Email

Through your Camp InTouch account you are able to send your camper “bunknotes”. To take advantage of this service, you will need to purchase our online currency called Camp Stamps. This can be done by logging into your family account and clicking the option for “Camp Stamps”. After you purchase Camp Stamps, you can then use them to purchase emails. There is no limit on how many emails you send your child each day, though we ask you to keep in mind the environmental impact of printing emails and request that you put as much information into one email as possible! You can also invite family members to send emails by creating a guest account, which can also be done on your account. Emails will be printed each day before lunch and placed in cabin mailboxes.

Mail for Campers on Trip Programs

If your child(ren) are participating in 8th Grade Ranch, TASC, Teen Village, Rock 'n Ride, or Pack 'n Ride, please note that mail is collected at camp for campers while they are away on their tripping programs and then is distributed to them upon their return to camp. We will make an effort to deliver mail to Teen Village campers once during their trip experience.

We welcome any questions or concerns you may have during the camp season. You can email us at ranchcamp@jccdenver.org.

Additional Information While at Camp

Bar/Bat Mitzvah Support

We can provide Bar and Bat Mitzvah support at camp. A trained staff member will meet with campers twice during their session, reviewing any study material that they have brought with them to camp and making sure that they stay on-track in their studies while at camp.

Birthdays

At the Ranch Camp, each birthday is a special day. We have our own way of celebrating within our camp community. We encourage parents to send packages with decorations and/or party favors for the cabin to help celebrate. We ask that while you help your child celebrate, you keep in mind that they are at camp with 6-12 other bunkmates. The very best birthday packages can be enjoyed by everyone in the bunk!

Bunkmate Requests

We will do our very best to accommodate everyone. However, due to various cabin sizes, the Ranch Camp cannot guarantee bunking requests. We try to honor old friendships, encourage new ones, and create a community in which all can be happy. If you have a particular concern, please email us or call our office.

Kashrut

The JCC Ranch Camp is a kosher facility. We maintain a supervised Kosher kitchen (not Vaad supervised), and monitor all foods campers eat while at camp. Depending on the season, we either have a mashgiach on-site or our mashgiach will visit our site, regularly, to ensure standards are met.

Laundry

Campers' laundry will be done once during Sessions 1, 2, and 3. No laundry will be done during Mini Sessions and limited laundry will be offered to TASC, Rock n' Ride, Pack n' Ride and Teen Village due to their shortened time on-site. All laundry is done on the premises by a trained staff member.

Lost & Found

Lost & Found is displayed at camp throughout each session and before campers leave each session. The #1 way to ensure lost items are returned is to label your clothing with your campers' first and last name (not just initials!). After the end of the session, unclaimed Lost & Found items will be brought to the Denver JCC. All items not claimed by the end of August will be donated to a community organization.

Ranch Camp Clothing

Your camper will receive one complimentary short-sleeved camp T-shirt.

Religious Services

Services are held at camp in observance of Shabbat (Friday night, Saturday morning, and Havdallah on Sunday evening). They are run by staff and campers and are inclusive. The JCC Ranch Camp is committed to being a home for all Jews, and for those who are willing to respect and support the Jewish faith and people. Ranch Camp provides an environment where campers and staff can observe Shabbat according to their own traditions but we are not Shomer Shabbat as a community.

Security

The safety and security of our children is our number one priority each summer. We have professional security staff person on-site throughout the summer monitoring the property and main entrances. This staff person is an integral part of our camp community and will be a familiar face to both campers and staff.

We work with local officials as well as the JCC Denver Security Department to stay abreast of security concerns both locally and nationally. We are ever vigilant for any unsafe situations and train our staff members on how to respond to strangers and intruders. The JCC Ranch Camp is a secluded environment with singular access that is gated. Children are supervised while in and out of the cabin by camp personnel at all times.

Tipping

Jewish ethics teaches that "a mitzvah is its own reward" (Pirkei Avot 4:7). In keeping with our heritage and the guidelines of the American Camp Association (ACA), gratuities are not accepted by our staff. A short note or verbal thank you is the best form of appreciation or, if you would like, you may make a donation in someone's honor to our Staff Appreciation Fund or to our Camper Scholarship Fund. Please be sure to notify the directors about exceptional staff members.

Valuables

Camp provides all meals and snacks when campers are on-site and leave our facilities for road trips, so giving your child money to bring to camp is totally unnecessary. Campers traveling by airplane who have money to buy things at the airport or who are carrying electronics will give it to their counselor, who will then deliver it to the directors' office for safe holding until they leave camp. Please see list of things not to bring to camp.

The Ranch Camp is not responsible for lost or damaged personal property. NO CELL PHONES OR ELECTRONICS ARE PERMITTED AT CAMP. The only exception to this rule are ipods or personal music devices used by campers studying for their b'nai mitzvah during camp, which are allowed to be kept with the camper. Any other electronic items will be held for safe keeping if found or handed over, and delivered back to campers at the end of the session. Please make sure that all items are clearly labeled with the camper's first and last name.

Licensure Abuse Statement

In the event of suspicion of child abuse or neglect of any enrolled children, staff members are required to report this to the director. The director or staff member will, in turn, report the findings to Child Protective Services. As a parent of a child in a licensed childcare center, you may report any suspected abuse by calling the Child Abuse Hotline at 720.944.3000. If you wish to make a complaint or have a concern regarding your provider you may call the Public Health Inspection Division at 303.285.4075 or the Colorado Department of Human Services at 303.866.5958.

Activity Offerings

We do our best to get campers around to all our activity offerings multiple times during the course of their session. While most of our activities are open to all age groups, some of the activities are limited to older campers because of the equipment being used and/or the physical intensity of the activity. We are a “challenge by choice” program, which means that while we encourage campers to try all the activities, they are not pushed to participate in activities that they do not want to do.

Inclement weather during the session can require that some activity periods are cancelled. We will reschedule cabin groups for certain activities such as horseback riding, archery, pool, and ropes course, if time and schedule allow.

Please note that Mini Campers are scheduled at least once for all activities that they are eligible to participate in. Mini Camp is a “taste of camp” experience and the short time frame does not often allow for campers to get to do many of the activities more than once. Activities with age limitations: Mountain Biking - 6th graders and up

We attempt to schedule all Ranch Program campers twice for each activity during their session, and three times at the corral during their session.

Packing For Camp

Label Clothing and Equipment

Please be sure that each item is clearly marked with the camper’s FIRST INITIAL AND FULL LAST NAME (even on socks and underwear!). Initials are not sufficient to enable us to return items to campers. The best luggage is a large, top-open duffel bag or a trunk. Linens can be packed in your camper’s laundry bag or another duffel bag. The idea is to have items easily accessible. There will be some shelf space provided for each camper, but it may not be sufficient to store everything that they’ve brought. Please make sure to let your camper help pack so they feel comfortable knowing what they have and where everything is located. Duplicating this clothing list and taping/attaching it to the inside of a trunk or duffel bag often facilitates easier packing at the end of each session.

water bottles + sunscreen + brimmed hat + closed-toe shoes =
ONE HAPPY CAMPER!

A few words on what to bring:

There are a few items on the list that we would like to stress as CRITICAL for your child to have a safe and enjoyable summer:

- Your camper MUST carry a water bottle or canteen at all times. The campers are busy all day and need plenty of fluids on a regular basis to prevent dehydration.
- Sunscreen and a brimmed hat are essential to prevent burning. Most activities are outside in the sun, and your child needs to be properly protected.
- The American Camp Association requires a smooth, hard-soled shoe (i.e. no hiking boots) with a heel that comes above the ankle for horseback riding. Ranch Camp has extra pairs of boots that campers can borrow. If you want to buy boots, thrift stores and Walmart/Target often have inexpensive cowboy boots. Sheplers (in Colorado) also often runs sales where boots can be purchased for $15 to $20.

A few words on what NOT to bring:

As well as those items that are essential for a positive camping experience, there are items that can cause environmental or behavioral problems at camp, and those that we are simply not licensed to allow. Please read this list carefully and ensure that NONE of these items make it into your child’s luggage. We really need your help on this issue to make certain that the camp has a fun, safe, and clean environment.

- Food!
- Money, other than for plane travel
- Cell phones, electronic games, e-readers, and iPods are not allowed at camp (exception: personal music devices used for Bar/Bat Mitzvah training). The Ranch Camp provides programming with many outdoor and creative activities to expose your child to new experiences. Electronics should be left at home
- Shaving cream should not be brought to camp unless your child actually uses shaving cream at home
- Silly string has no constructive purpose, damages buildings, is not readily biodegradable, and is often consumed by our furry friends (which results in illness and/or death)
- Knives or any other weapons of any shape or size are not needed for any camp programs, and they are therefore prohibited.
- Roller blades and/or skateboards
- Camp is a place to be comfortable, but some clothing is not acceptable. Please leave bare midriff tops, short shorts, and sheer or revealing clothing at home; clothing with alcohol, drug-related, sexual, or degrading images and/messages are not allowed at camp!

Additional Packing List For Campers Enrolled In Trip Programs

Note to Parents: Your child's enjoyment and safety during the trip start with them bringing the appropriate gear and clothing.

Backpack – The only requirement is that the backpack has a frame (either internal or external), a well-padded hip-belt (50-60% of the pack's load should be carried on the hips), and a capacity of at least 50 liters. The fit of the pack is the most essential factor and can make a backpacking trip either pleasant or painful. We cannot emphasize enough the importance of a well-fitted backpack! The camper will suffer if the backpack does not fit properly. Most outdoors stores (like REI) will help you pick the correct pack and/or customize a pack to properly fit.

Sleeping Bag – NO COTTON! A synthetic sleeping bag is recommended but down sleeping bags are also acceptable. If you choose to bring a down sleeping bag, a dry sack is required for storage of that sleeping bag while in a backpack. A temperature rating of between 12 and 25 degrees (or lower) is mandatory.

Sleeping Pad – This is more for insulation than comfort. The body loses heat to the ground through conduction, and a backpacking air mattress (ThermaRest, Insulex) or closed-cell foam pad (Ensolite, Ridge Rest) are designed to keep campers warm.

Footgear – Shoes should be, above all else, comfortable and well broken in. Ankle support and traction are two other essential features. There are a wide variety of boots on the market, ranging from high tech to traditional, but there is no need for anything fancy. Shoes must come over the ankle for support when carrying a backpack. It is also advised to bring along a second pair of tennis shoes or sandals that fasten to the foot (Chacos or Teva, NO flip-flops) to be worn around camp. Socks (3-4 pairs) need to be wool or wool synthetic blend, for warmth and cushioning. Polypro liner socks can help prevent blisters.

Clothing is just as important as gear. The unpredictable climate can place you alternately in weather that is ninety degrees and sunny, and an hour later in a gale force storm with temperatures in the 50's and rainy. The following clothing items are essential for the areas in which your child will be visiting: No cotton clothing will be allowed.

Hat – Wool or pile cap that covers the ears. 70% of the body's heat loss occurs through the head. The old adage, "If your feet are cold, put on a hat," holds true to this day.

Sweater – Again, wool or fleece are the preferred materials due to their ability to retain heat when wet. Sweatshirts are designed to exercise in, to keep the body cool, i.e. to lose heat. Their insulating value is low, (i.e. they lose heat so they cannot be used in place of a sweater). Two sweaters/fleeces are required for the trip, one as a backup layer for inclement weather.

Long johns – These are the foundation of the layering system for almost any wilderness activity. They are warm when wet, dry quickly, are light and compact, and grant some relief from monster mosquitoes in the summer. Capilene and polypropylene are two materials on the market. At least two tops and one bottom for each camper.

Raingear – Water washes away heat quickly, and the difference between health and hypothermia can be as easy as an adequate rain jacket. The rectangular ponchos seen at sporting events are poor when hiking or when wind is present. A rain jacket with a hood is a must to protect the body core from heat loss, it should be waterproof and breathable. Rain pants are a must as well.

Pants – Quick drying, non-cotton is best. 1 pair

Shorts – Quick drying, non-cotton are best. 2-3 pair (one less if they are long pants with zip off legs that convert to shorts).

Other Essentials – Some of these items are mentioned on the regular packing list, others are not. We included items that we wanted to emphasize on both lists:

- Two one liter water bottles (Nalgene or Sigg) • Sunglasses
- Sunscreen • Ball cap (or hat with a visor) • Wool gloves or mittens • Mosquito repellent • LED flashlight (or Head lamp is preferred) with extra batteries • Light weight mess kit (including a cup, plate, bowl, and silverware) • Whistle on a cord (to be worn around the neck) • An extra pair of glasses or contacts • Extra inhaler or bee sting kit.

Leave at Camp: Jeans, Cotton sweatshirts, flip flops, broad brimmed sun hats, pajamas, bathrobes, and dressy Shabbat cloths. If your child carries any Epi Pens or Inhaler, it is required that your child has two Epi Pens or two inhalers!

Tips for shopping: While stores like REI have the advantage of trying things on and the help of a sales person, parents can also check out the following websites for less expensive alternatives:

Additional Packing List for EQ Campers

Riding Helmet – Must meet ASTM standards and be SEI approved. Helmets must be worn by campers at all times when in the corral. JCC Ranch Camp provides riding helmets for campers, but EQ campers often elect to bring their own helmets to camp. Make sure that your camper's helmet is comfortable and has vents to help them stay cool. Velvet show helmets are NOT recommended.

Extra Jeans – EQ campers are required to wear jeans to ride in daily. You need not pack your camper with as many shorts as recommended on the General Packing List, but it is suggested that you bring 5 pairs of jeans for riding, in addition to a few pairs of pants for the evenings and weekends.

Riding Boots – Western riding boots with a smooth sole and heel are required for riding. Make sure to wear-in new boots before arriving to camp to avoid a painful break-in process and blisters. While Ranch Camp has extra pairs of boots to lend Ranch Program campers, EQ campers are required to bring their own personal pair of riding boots to camp. Hiking boots are not riding boots. See page 18 for boot buying suggestions.

T-Shirts – Please note that campers are required to wear shirts WITH sleeves in the corral. No tank-tops/singlets are permitted to be worn while riding; this rule is important for horse safety, as well as sun safety. Make sure to pack your campers t-shirts, long-sleeved shirts, and sweatshirts that you and your camper do not mind getting dirty!

Hat – Be sure to bring a baseball cap or cowboy hat to wear when not riding or instructing. It is easy to get sun-burned and dehydrated during the summer months at our elevation.

Other Essentials – (Some of these items are mentioned on the regular packing list, others are not. We included items that we wanted to emphasize on both lists.) 2 water bottles, sunglasses, sunscreen, mosquito repellent, an extra pair of glasses or contacts, and an extra inhaler or bee sting kit.

Additional Packing List For Mountain Bike Specialty Track

Bike Helmet – needs to be in good working order and preferably less than 3 years old. Mountain bike style helmet rather than BMX or Skate style helmet.

Padded Bike Shorts and Gloves – not essential, but makes long days of riding more comfortable and protect hands if the camper should come off bike.

Jersey Shirts - no cotton tees for riding. Needs to be quick-drying and breathable.

Hydration Pack - (i.e. Camelback or equivalent) min 2 liters, with a storage pocket.

Mountain Bike (optional) - Must be safe and in good working order. Should have at least one water bottle cage with water bottle. Min 21 speed bike.

Long johns – These are the foundation of the layering system for almost any wilderness activity. They are warm when wet, dry quickly, are light and compact, and grant some relief from monster mosquitoes in the summer. Capilene and polypropylene are two materials on the market. At least two tops and one bottom for each camper.

Raingear – Lightweight riding jacket, something not too bulky that camper can ride in. Water washes away heat quickly, and the difference between health and hypothermia can be as easy as an adequate rain jacket. The rectangular ponchos seen at sporting events are poor when hiking or when wind is present. A rain jacket with a hood is a must to protect the body core from heat loss, it should be waterproof and breathable.

Hat – Wool or pile camp that covers the ears. 70% of the body's heat loss occurs through the head. The old adage, "If your feet are cold, put on a hat," holds true to this day.

Sweater – Again, wool or fleece are the preferred materials due to their ability to retain heat when wet. Sweatshirts are designed to exercise in, to keep the body cool, i.e. to lose heat. Their insulating value is low, (i.e. they lose heat so they cannot be used in place of a sweater). Two sweaters/fleeces are required for the trip, one as a backup layer for inclement weather.

Sleeping Bag – NO COTTON! A synthetic sleeping bag is recommended but down sleeping bags are also acceptable. If you choose to bring a down sleeping bag, a dry sack is required for storage of that sleeping bag while in a backpack. A temperature rating of between 12 and 25 degrees (or lower) is mandatory.

Sleeping Pad – This is more for insulation than comfort. The body loses heat to the ground through conduction, and a backpacking air mattress (ThermaRest, Insulex) or closed-cell foam pad (Ensolite, Ridge Rest) slows the heat loss appreciably.

Other Essentials – (Some of these items are mentioned on the regular packing list, others are not. We included items that we wanted to emphasize on both lists.) 2 water bottles, sunglasses, sunscreen, mosquito repellent, an extra pair of glasses or contacts, and an extra inhaler or bee sting kit.

Teen Village Packing List*

Many items on this list are ALSO listed on the main trips packing list, please use this list as your primary packing guide for Teen Village.

The best way to pack for the trip when you arrive to camp is to bring three bags. We will be on the trip for 23 days and at camp for four days. One bag is your large backpack for the hiking portion. This should have all your gear, etc. The next bag should be your daypack. This we will use for hiking and non-trail days. Finally, you can pack a SMALL duffel (like an athletic bag etc.) We will leave this in the van. Inside of this, you can put some extra clothes for the days we are not backpacking (when we are rafting, climbing etc.) You also can include a couple changes of clothes for the few days we are at camp. These can stay at camp when we are out and about.

We will be at camp for one Shabbat. Please pack clothes for Shabbat. Shabbat outfits will not be brought on trip.

Some things to remember: No cotton will be allowed on trip! Cotton is useless when wet and develops bad smells far quicker than synthetic materials. All clothing must be synthetic materials. Keep in mind that temperatures can vary from 90+ degrees to below freezing, so pack accordingly. For the backpacking portion of the trip, you will be carrying all of these things on your back, so try to buy lightweight gear to make your lives easier. If you have any questions feel free to contact us at ranchcamp@jccdenver.org.

| Item | Amount | Details | Item | Amount | Details |
|----------------|------------|---|--|--------|--|
| Trekking Pack | One | A proper fit is crucial. Make sure you try it on with weight in it. 55 liters or more is ideal! (ex. Osprey Atmos 65 pack) | Underwear | 12 | You can wash these with soap and water and reuse along the way! Cotton is not allowed! |
| Daypack | One | This should be a sturdy school-type backpack that has plenty of room for water, snacks, raingear, and extra layers for our non-backpacking days. | Mess kit | One | Bowl, spoon, and mug ONLY. A bowl with a lid that fastens is recommended. |
| Sleeping Bag | One | Please: No cotton. A bag with a temp rating of 12-25° F is recommended. Down is good as long as it does not get wet. If you bring a down sleeping bag a dry storage bag is required. A synthetic type bag is suggested. Men and women have different body temperatures, so gendered sleeping bags are different for a reason (ex. Marmot Trestles Sleeping Bag) | 1-liter waterbottles | Three | You need to be able to have three liters on you at all times while hiking. Camelbaks are great, but make sure you have at least one bottle as well. |
| Sleeping Pad | One | Anything you will be comfortable sleeping on for 28 days total. The lighter weight the better. (ex. Therm-a-Rest RidgeRest or Therm-a-Rest ProLite) | Sun Hat | One | All campers will be required to hike with a hat. Brimmed is awesome! |
| Hiking Boots | One | You CANNOT hike in tennis shoes. Ankle support is a must. Hiking boots take a long time to break in. Waterproof boots are recommended (ex. Asolo TPS 520 GV Evo Hiking Boots) | Toiletries | | Up to you what you need. Travel sized things are great. (Toothbrush, toothpaste, face wipes, contact stuff, nasal spray, etc.) |
| Hiking Socks | Four – Six | Socks must come up to mid-calf. Wool is recommended. The best brand is Darn Tough (ex. Darn Tough Hiker Boot Socks) | Headlamp | One | Flashlights are okay but headlamps are much more convenient. Bring extra batteries! |
| Long Underwear | One set | Non- cotton (ex. Patagonia Capilene Midweight) | Camp Shoes | One | Shoes for wearing while rafting, camping, not backpacking. Tennis shoes are great as are Chacos, Tevas, or anything with a heel strap. Closed toed is recommended. NO FLIP-FLOPS |
| Warm Hat | One | A beanie or some form of over the ear hat. | Swimsuit | One | Something that will stay on your body when a fast current is encountered, so bikinis that are tied on are not allowed. |
| Gloves | One | Non-cotton (seeing a trend?) | Sunscreen | A LOT | Super important. Everyone should have this and a lot of it. |
| Fleece | One | Warm, non-cotton. | Bug Spray | | However much you find necessary. There will be mosquitoes. |
| Rain Jacket | One | Water repellent, not water-resistant. A ski jacket does not count. Must be its own separate shell. No ponchos please. | Mosquito Netting | One | Optional but encouraged. |
| Rain Pants | One | Same as above. | Whistle | One | Not attached to backpack, your most important survival tool. |
| Hiking Pants | One | Separate from long underwear. Non-cotton, lightweight. No jeans or sweatpants. | Tarp | One | 6X6 Tarp for solo experience. Can be purchased at Target, Home Depot, etc. We will have down time and it is nice to be entertained. Do not bring phones, iPods or any other form of digital entertainment. |
| Shorts | Two | Athletic shorts. Non-cotton. For girls: longer shorts are required for rock climbing and backpacking. Just say no to short shorts. | Books, Cameras, Frisbees, Cards, Travel board games, other entertainment | | |
| T-shirts | Four | Dri-fit is preferable. Cotton is not allowed! | | | |

Please do not bring knives or other weapons.
